Boosting Your Global Investment Opportunities – 12 October 2011

In connection with the French Association of Financial Management (AFG), the Professional Wealth Management (PWM) magazine is organising the "Boosting Your Global Investment Opportunities" event on 12 October 2011. This event, sponsored by Groupama Asset Management, aims to promote French asset management to the London market.

Asset management business professionals from London and Paris, as well as authorities, service companies and European regulatory bodies will be present. This event will highlight current developments in the asset management industry.
